Personal Values

Value – what something is worth (often referred to objects e.g. laptop, phone, Xbox 360, car etc.)

Personal Value(s) — a judgement about what is important in life, (often referred to qualities that guide us in life e.g. honesty, friendship, kindness, loyalty etc.)

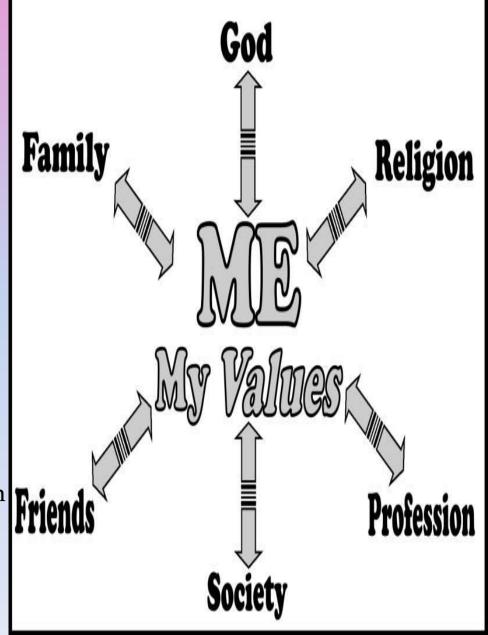

LOYALTY
At your side Since: Forever

Values are things we attach importance to in life, things that are good, beneficial, important, useful, beautiful, desirable, appropriate etc. Our values help to guide how we live.

Often we value people like our family, guardians and friends, sometimes we value material objects like the latest technology, designer clothes and cars. We can also value personal qualities like altruism (selfless concern for others), wisdom and compassion. Often we value people, objects and qualities in our search for happiness.

Personal Values and Behaviour

Our values influence or motivate our behaviour. For example, someone who valued honesty would try his or her best to be honest in any situation. Our values can change over time as our experiences in life develop.

Activity

Read the following statements and decide what value(s) they show:

- 1. I always put others before myself.
- 2. I love England and show this by flying the English flag.
- 3. I enjoy hanging out with my friends and always stand by them.
- 4. When I do not like someone I let them know it.
- 5. I wear black and look solemn at a funeral.
- 6. I work best with other people in a group.
- 7. I go to the gym three times a week
- 8. I only like people who are the same as me.
- 9. Stealing is ok as long as you don't get caught.
- 10. I talk to everyone and accept people who are different to me.

Putting People in Boxes

You don't know much about me
To you I'm a name on the register
A presence in the classroom
A shape around the school.

When we do sums

The numbers scuttle round my head like crazy crabs

And come out sideways

So you put me in a box marked stupid.

When we play games

The ball leaps from my hopeful fingers like a frog

It stays in anybody's hands but mine

So you've put me in a box marked stupid.

And when we talk
I cannot tame my tongue
It gabbles things out that I never meant
So you've put me in a box marked cheeky.

I wish you would try to know me
You'd find that I do not fit into your boxes
But their lids are too tight shut
For you to ever open them
I've got you in a box marked careless.

Putting People in Boxes

- 1. Do you like this poem?
- 2. What values do you think it encourages?
- 3. Do you agree with these values? Give reasons why.

Activity

In pairs, discuss how your personal values influence your actions.

Try to think of five examples.

Write the heading 'My Values in Action' and explain how the personal values that you live by influence your actions. For example:

"I value good manners, so I always say please and thank you."
