

Harold Godwineson
was shot in the eye
with an arrow and died from his wounds

All of William's army had training and experience where as many of Harold's army had little or no
training

Harold's army had already fought Harald Hardraada in the north

Why did William become King of England?

William's army tricked Harold's by making them chase them down the hill and then
slaughtered them

Harold had lost many soldiers at the Battle of Stamford Bridge
including some good fighters.

Many of Harold's army had been drinking the night before the battle, celebrating after defeating Harald Hardraada in the north
